STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Electoral reform is a continuous process and the two enactments dealing with elections to Parliament and the State Legislatures, namely, the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as "the 1950-Act") and the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as "the 1951-Act") have been amended from time to time for the purpose. Proposals for comprehensive amendments to Electoral Law received from the Election Commission and others considered by the Committee on Electoral Reforms in 1990 have been under the consideration of Government. Keeping in view the proposals received and the views expressed by the various political parties, it has been decided to bring about comprehensive amendments in the two aforementioned enactments. The present Bill seeks to give effect to the said amendments. The salient features of the Bill are as under:

- (1) It is proposed to insert a new section 28A in the 1950-Act to empower the Election Commission to direct, with the previous approval of the Central Government, that identity cards be issued to the electors in constituencies or parts thereof as may be specified and in such manner and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.
- (2) Section 8 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that a person convicted of an offence punishable under section 2 or section 3 of the Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act, 1971 shall be disqualified for a period of six years from the date of such conviction.
- (3) It is proposed to insert a new section 20B in the 1951-Act to enable the Election Commission to nominate Observers to watch the conduct of elections and such Observers will have the power to direct the returning officers to stop the counting of votes or not to declare the result in certain contingencies like booth capturing, etc.
- (4) It is proposed to strengthen the provisions of section 29A of the 1951-Act to provide that no association or body shall be registered as a political party if the association or body bears a religious name. An appeal is proposed to be provided against the decision of the Election Commission to the Supreme Court. Further, a new section 29B is proposed to be inserted whereunder a complaint can be made to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the main office of a political party is situate for cancelling the registration of a political party where such political party bears a religious name or the memorandum or rules and regulations of the political party no longer conform to the provisions of section 29A(5) or the activities of the political party are not in accordance with the said memorandum, rules or regulations.

(5) Section 30 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide for the reduction of the time for campaign to 14 days.

- (6) Section 33 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that a person shall not be nominated as a candidate for election in more than two constituencies of the same class.
- (7) Section 34 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to increase the security deposits of candidates.
- (8) Sub-section (2) of section 38 of the 1951-Act which provides for listing of the names, etc., of the contesting candidates in alphabetical order is proposed to be omitted.
- (9) Section 52 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that on the death of a candidate an election shall, instead of being countermanded, only be adjourned.
- (10) Section 58A of the 1951-Act is being amplified to empower the Election Commission to order repoll also in the entire constituency depending on the nature and seriousness of the cases of booth capturing.
- (11) New section 124 is proposed to be inserted in the 1951-Act to give statutory effect to certain provisions of Part VII of the Model Code of Conduct for the guidance of Political Parties and Candidates.
- (12) New section 151A is proposed to be inserted in the 1951-Act to provide for holding of bye-elections within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.
- (13) Certain further amendments are also proposed to ensure peaceful conduct of elections by reducing the influence of money and muscle power by prohibiting the carrying of arms, etc., on the polling day.
- 2. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objects.

NEW DELHI;

H. R. BHARDWAJ.

The 9th June, 1994.

Notes on clauses

Clause 2 seeks to amend section 28 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (hereafter referred to as the 1950 Act) to empower the Central Government to make rules, after consulting the Election Commission, in respect of the manner in which the identity cards shall be issued and the particulars such cards shall contain. The amendment is sought to be made with effect from 1st day of January, 1961 as the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960 framed under the said section came into force on the 1st day of January, 1961.

Clause 3 seeks to insert a new section 28A in the 1950 Act to empower the Election Commission, to direct with the previous approval of the Central Government and by notification in the Official Gazette of a State that identity cards be issued to electors in such constituencies or part thereof as may be specified in the notification. Further, identity cards shall be issued in such manner and contain such particulars as may be laid down in the rules to be made by the Central Government. It also provides that any notification issued in this behalf by the Election Commission without the previous approval of the Central Government shall be void and inoperative.

Clause 4 seeks to amend sub-section (1) of section 32 of the 1950 Act to provide for deterrent punishment for breach of official duty in connection with the preparation, etc., of electoral rolls.

Clause 5 seeks to insert a new clause in sub-section (1) of section 8 of the 1951-Act to provide that a person convicted of an offence punishable under section 2 or section 3 of the Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act, 1971 shall be disqualified for a period of six years from the date of such conviction.

Clause 6 seeks to insert a new sectoin 20B to empower the Election Commission to nominate an officer of the Government to be Observer to watch the conduct of election in a constituency or group of constituencies. Such Observers shall have the power to direct the returning officer in the constituency to stop counting of votes at any time before the declaration of the result or not to declare the result if the Observer is of the opinion that booth capturing has taken place at a large number of polling stations, etc., or where the ballot papers are unlawfully taken out of the custody of the returning officer or are tampered with. Where the returning officer has been directed by the Observer to stop the counting of votes or not to declare the result the Observer shall forthwith report the matter to the Election Commission and the Election Commission shall issue appropriate directions under the provisions of the Act.

Clause 7 seeks to amend section 29A of the 1951-Act to provide that no association or body bearing a religious name shall be registered as a political party and the decision of the Election Commission not to register the association or body shall be appealable to the Supreme Court within 30 days from the date of the decision.

Clause 8 seeks to insert a new section 29B in the 1951. Act to provide that a complaint can be made to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the main office of a political party is situate for cancelling the registration of a political party where such political party bears a religious name or the memorandum or tules and regulations of such political party no longer conform to the provisions of sub-section (5) of section 29A or the activities of the political party are not in accordance with the said memorandum or rules and regulations. It also provides a time limit of 90 days within which political party with religious name shall be required to change such name and conform to the new law.

Clause 9 seeks to amend section 30 of the 1951-Act—to provide for the reduction of the time for campaigning from 20 days to 14 days.

Clause 10 seeks to amend section 33 of the 1951-Act to provide that a person shall not be nominated as a candidate for election in more than two constituencies of the same class.

Clause 11 seeks to amend section 34 of the 1951-Act to provide for the increase of amount of deposits by candidates for election from a Parliamentary constituency or from an Assembly or Council constituency.

Clause 12 seeks to omit sub-section (2) of section 38 of the 1951-Act which provides for listing of the names, etc., of the contesting candidates in alphabetical order.

Clause 13 seeks to substitute a new section for section 52 of the 1951-Act to provide that on the death of a candidate an election shall be adjourned to a date to be notified later instead of being countermanded. Further, where a list of contesting candidates had been published before the adjournment of the poll the returning officer has to prepare and publish a fresh list of contesting candidates again.

Clause 14 seeks to amplify section 58A of the 1951 Act to empower the Election Commission to order repoll also in the entire constituency depending on the nature and seriousness of the cases of booth capturing.

Clause 15 seeks to insert new Chapter II to give statutory effect to certain provisions of Part VII of the Model Code of Conduct for the guidance of political parties and candidates.

Clause 16 seeks to substitute a new section for section 126 of the 1951-Act to prohibit public meetings during a period of 48 hours ending with the hour fixed for the conclusion of a poll and provides for punishment for the contravention of the provisions of the section.

Clause 17 seeks to amend section 127 of the 1951-Act to increase the quantum of punishment and also to make the offence under that section a cognizable offence.

Clause 18 seeks to substitute a new section for section 133 of the 1951-Act to increase the quantum of punishment if any person is found guilty of any corrupt practice as specified in clause (5) of section 123 and also to provide that offences under the section shall be cognizable offences.

Clause 19 seeks to insert a new section 134B in the 1951-Act to provide for prohibition of any person other than the returning officer, the presiding officer, any police officer on duty, etc., to go to a neighbourhood polling station on a polling day armed with arms. It further provides for imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine or with both for contravention of the provisions of the section.

Clause 20 seeks to amend section 135.

Clause 21 seeks to amend section 135A of the 1951-Acr to enhance the quantum of punishment provided under that section and to make an offence punishable under that section a cognizable offence.

Clause 22 seeks to insert new sections 135B and 135C in the 1951-Act to provide for grant of paid holiday to employees on the day of poll. In case of contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 135B, the employer shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupecs. New section 135C provides that no spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or other substances shall be sold, given or distributed at a hotel, eating house, etc., within a polling area on a polling day. It provides for punishment for contravention of provisions of the section. It further provides that if spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, etc., is found in the possession of a person convicted of an offence under that section such liquor, etc., shall be liable to confiscation and the same shall be disposed of in such manner as may be laid down in the rules to be made by the Central Government

Clause 23 seeks to insert a new section 15/1A in the 1951-Act to provide for holding of bye-elections within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.

Clause 24 seeks to amend section 158 of the 1951-Act to provide that the deposit shall be forfeited if at an election where a poll has been taken the candidate is not elected and the number of valid votes polled by him does not exceed one-fourth of the total number of valid votes polled by all the candidates.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 28A in the Representation of the People Act, 1950 which provides for issuance of photo identity cards to electors an notified constituencies. The issuance of photo identity cards in notified constituencies would involve both recurring and non-recurring expenditure and would depend on the number of constituencies that are notified as also on the number of electors in such constituencies. Clause 6 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 20B in the Representation of the People Act, 1951 which provides for the appointment of Observers by the Election Commission during election. In view of the above factors, it may not be possible to readily estimate the exact amount which may be required for these purposes. The expenditure with regard to the appointment of Observers would, however, be nominal.

2. The Bill, when enacted, is not likely to involve any other recurring or non-recurring expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to make rules, after consulting the Election Commission, in respect of the manner in which identity cards shall be issued and the particulars such cards shall contain.

- 2. Clause 22 of the Bill seeks to insert new section 135C in the Act. Under sub-section (3) of that section spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or other substances of a like nature found in the possession of any person are liable to confiscation and the same will be disposed of in such manner as may be laid down in the rules.
- 3 The matters in respect of which power is proposed to be given to the Central Government to make rules are matters of administrative detail and it is not possible to incorporate them in the Act. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

With a view to implement the provisions of the Constitution (Seventy-fourth Amendment) Act, 1992 in relation to legislation on municipalities in Manipur, the Manipur Municipalities Ordinance, 1994 was promulgated by the President on the 24th May, 1994. This was necessary as the State of Manipur was put under President's Rule by a proclamation made under orticle 356 of the Constitution by the President on the 31st December, 1993.

- 2 In Manipur, the Manipur Municipalities Act, 1976 was in existence prior to the promulgation of the Manipur Municipalities Ordinance, 1994. This was necessary with a view to strengthen the set up of local 'self-Government and to bring the law on municipalities in conformity with the Constitutional requirements. Some of the important provisions contained in the aforesaid Ordinance and which are proposed to be incorporated in the new Bill are as follows:—
 - (i) there are identical provisions for Nagar Panchayats and Manipur Council in the State;
 - (ii) determination and declaration of an area in transition from rural to urban and constitution of Nagar Panchayats thereof;
 - (iii) declaration of smaller urban areas and the constitution of Municipal Council thereof:
 - (iv) composition of Nagar Panchayat and Municipal Council with persons having special knowledge and experience in Municipal Administration:
 - (v) constitution, powers of the Wards Committees in respect of municipalities having a population of three lakks or more;
 - (vi) the reservation of seats for members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in the municipalities in proportion to their population in the municipality to the total population;
 - (vii) the reservation of not less than one-third of the total number of seats (including that of reserved seats) for women:
 - (viii) the reservation of offices of Chairperson of municipalities for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and women in the manner to be prescribed by the State Government;
 - (ix) providing a general disqualification for members of municipalities if a person is disqualified under any law, for the time being in force, for being chosen or as being a member of the Legislative Assembly;
 - (x) limiting the period of dissolution of a municipality to six months and to treat the vacancies filled subsequent to dissolution as casual vacancies and thus limiting their term only for the remainder of the period for which the dissolved municipality would have continued had it not been dissolved;

- (xi) setting up of State Finance Commission to review the financial position of the municipalities and make recommendation to the Governor on matters relating to municipal finance;
- (xii) setting up of State Election Commission for superintendance, direction and conduct of all elections to the municipalities:
- (xiii) setting up of District Planning Committee to consolidate the plans prepared by the Panchayats and the municipalities in the district and to prepare a draft development plan for the district as a whole;
- (xiv) setting up of Metropolitan Planning Committee to prepare a draft development plan for the Metropolitan area as a whole.
- 3. Prior to the promulgation of the Ordinance there were seven Municipalities and twenty-one small town committees in Manipur State. The term of all the municipalities and small town committees has already been expired. The powers to make thies to carry out the provisions of the Bill are contained in several provisions o' the Bill. This is necessary in view of the subject matter of the Bill. Some of the more important provisions of the Bill empowering to make rule, are in clauses 10, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20; 24; 30; 35, 48; 71, 72; 83, 93, 94, 107, 142, 150; 174; 178; 208; 209; 210; 211; 213; 215; 216; 218: 219 and 227. There are also certain provisions empowering the Government to issue notifications. Some of the more important of these provisions are sub-clause (3) of clause 1 clause 2, 3, 4, 7, 11, 15, 16, 17, 22, 28, 31, 36; 55; 62; 74; 77; 86; 179; 220; 228 and 229.

The matters in respect of which the rules may be made or the notifications may be issued under the aforementioned provisions relate to administrative detail and procedure. The delegation of legislative power is therefore, of normal character.

Clause 221 of the Bill empowers the Government to remove by order any difficulty which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of this legislation. This is by way of abundant caution and for covering difficulties which it is not practicable to visualise in view of the voluminous and complicated nature of the subject matter of the Bill,
